DR. KEYSER'S
PECTORAL SYRUP
CURES CONSUMPTION, CURES BRONCHITIS,
CURES COLDS, CURES ASTHMA,
CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

I INVITE ATTENTION to some of the most extraordinary cures by my

PECTORAL SYRUP.

They are at home and any one who has doubts can inquire of the persons who have been cured by it.

DR. KEYSER IS PREPARED AT ANY TIME TO EXAMINE LUNGS, WITHOUT CHARGE, FOR ALL THOSE WHO NEED HIS MEDICINE.

ATTEND TO YOUR COLDS.—A case of five years standing cured by

DR. KEYSER'S
PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 11th, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which for several years back had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your Pectoral Cough Syrup. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18th, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicine in general, it affords me great pleasure to recommend your Pectoral Syrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a cold.

I have been more or less, in my life affected with the severest colds of hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In re commending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best medicine I ever found, purporting to cure the above; nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier, Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, O., March 14th, 1859.

I have used Dr Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. IT KNOCKED THE NOISE OUT OF MY COUGH, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with; I have not used more than one half of the bottle, and can and do wish that I who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy.—

E. F. PRATT.
Messenger, Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURG, May 11th, 1859.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

E. F. P.

READ THE TRUTH—DR. KEYSER: I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robison street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURG, December 31st, 1853.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county.—I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months, I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your PECTORAL SYRUP, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had dispaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE, Peebles township.

Witness.—B. M. KEER.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14th, 1857.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago, an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me he had taken every remedy they knew of without benefit; his brother came to see him die. And all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it variously cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN MCGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable "Pectoral Syrup." Almost everybody around us has the cold and are inquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., tell us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

J. S. WATTERSON & SON'S.

January 30th, 1860.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I have been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. Finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely. Signed,

J. W. SIMONTON.

233 Liberty St., Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 9th, 1860.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?"—"Go to Keyser's on Wood street and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy she hears almost every day in cold catching seasons of the year. As we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral" in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Year two weeks ago we went to Pittsburg with one of the most distressing contrary, mulish, unsubdunable coughs we have ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of "tiring it out," but it was no go. In fact it seemed rather to improve by practice and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this state of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the Pectoral, took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered after a brief but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14th, 1859.

A MOTHER'S THOUGHT.

BY FRANCIS D. GAGE.

Silent and lone, silent and lone,
Where, tell me where, are my little ones gone,
That used to be playing about my knee,
With their noisy mirth, and boisterous glee?
Who littered the carpets, and mis placed the chairs,
And scattered their playthings all unawares;
Who called for their suppers with eager shout,
And while they were getting, ran in and out,
Who kept all the apples and nuts from spoiling,
And never saved jackets or pants from soiling;
Had ever a want, and ever a will
That added a care to my heart, until
I sometimes sighed for the time to come,
When they'd all be big, and go out from home.

Silent and lone, silent and lone,
Where, tell me where, are my little ones gone?
There's no little faces to wash to-night,
No little troubles for mother to right,
No little blue eyes to be sung to sleep,
No little playthings to put up to keep,
No little garments to be hung on the rack,
No little tales to tell, no nuts to crack,
No little trundle bed, brim full of rollick,
Calling for mamma to settle the frolic;
No little soft lips to press me with kisses—
(Oh! such a sad, lonely evening as this is!)
No little voices to shout with delight;
"Good night, dear mamma, good night, good night."
Silent the house is; no little ones here,
To startle a smile or to chase back a tear.

Silent and lone, silent and lone,
Where, tell me where, are my little ones gone;
It seemeth but yesterday, since they were young;
Now they're all scattered, the world's paths among,
Out where the great rolling trade-stream is flowing;
Out where new firesides with love lights are glowing;
Out where the graves of their life-hopes are sleeping,
Not to be comforted—weeping still weeping;
Out where the high hills of science are blending
Up 'mid the cloud-rifts, up, up, still ascending;
Seeking the sunshine that rests on the mountain,
Drinking and thirsting still, still at the fountain;
Out in life's thorough-fares all of them toiling;
Out in the wide, wide world, striving and toiling.
Little ones, loving ones, playful ones, all,
That went when I bade, and come at my call,
Have ye deserted me? Will ye not come,
Back to your mother's arms—back to the Home?

Silent and lone, silent and lone,
Where, tell me where, are my little ones gone?
Useless my cry is. Why do I complain?
They'll be my little ones never again!
Can the great oaks to the acorns return?
The broad rolling stream flow back to the byrne?
The mother call childhood again to her knee,
That in manhood went forth, the strong and the free?
Nay! nay! no true mother would ask for them back;
Her work nobly done, their firm tramp on life's track;
Will come like an organ note, lofty and clear,
To lift up her soul and her spirit to cheer!
And though her tears fall, when she's silent and lone,
She'll know it is best they are scattered and gone!

Silent and lone! silent and lone!
Thy will, O Father! not my will, be done!

Select Miscellany.

A PANTHER AND HIS VICTIM.

The victim was a young physician, who hung out at the Blockhouse village, and had, it is said, more love for, and skill in shooting, than surgery. Some ten or twelve miles from the Blockhouse is a place called the "English Settlement," and between the two places an unbroken forest extends nearly the whole way; there is no road through, but the settlers have "blazed" a line, and on this line the doctor started one morning to the settlement. He took his gun, of course, and also expressed an intention of being absent a week or more, if the hunting proved good.

He was not expected at the settlement, nor did he arrive there; but it happened that two or three days afterward, a man came through from the latter place, and on being questioned by the doctor's friends, gave the rather startling information that no doctor had arrived. As it was known he took no camp impediments along, and was not likely to have got lost, his friends, to the number of a half a dozen, took their rifles and started for the settlement, to "see it out." They had not far to go. He was lying a few yards from the path, frightfully torn and mangled, one barrel discharged, and the cap of the other exploded, with an unmistakable evidence of a fearful life and death struggle on his person. The men who found him were hunters, and they said "painter" at once. There was a trail of blood leading from the corpse to the thicket, but the leaves were falling, and after a long trail, they could follow it no longer.

It was worthy of note that an old hunter of that party gave it as his belief, after washing and closely examing the corpse, that the panther had his under jaw broken by the shot, and consequently could not eat or bite the body. Good dogs were brought to the spot the day after the body was found, but nothing came of it, and the conclusion was that the panther had crawled off to a thicket and died of his wound; that it was a panther, no one who saw the body or heard the story, even doubted.

This was in November. In the April following, some children who had been playing in the road at the settlement, rushed into a house near by wild with affright, and attempted incoherently to describe something of a fearful aspect, that was trying to get over a bush fenee into the road. "It's long as a horse and got bloody eyes," one little fellow said.

The children were too much accustomed to the sight of wild animals to make such a fuss without cause, and a couple of men who heard the yarn, started up immediately to the spot indicated by the children. Sure enough, there was a gaunt, spectre-like skeleton trying, in a meandering, feeble manner to worm himself through the fence into the road, falling on his side at times from sheer exhaustion, and only able to regain his feet after repeated trials; tottering and stumbling at every slight obstruction in his path, and totally incapable of inflicting injury on any living thing. He was an object of pity rather than fear.

It was the panther who had managed for five long months to keep himself alive without the least assistance from his under jaw, which was hopelessly shattered, and must have precluded the possibility of eating in the proper sense of the word. In his wounded and exhausted condition, he must have managed to exist by catching mice and "such small deer" as he could tuck into his throat with a paw, and swallow without mastication. Death must have been a relief to him, and he suffered himself to be knocked on the head without a snarl. He was a large specimen, measuring nearly eleven feet from tip to tip, and with his broken, decaying jaw, skin hanging loosely over the snake-like vertebre, and blood-shot famished eyes, must have been a walking nightmare to look on.

MUSCULAR STRENGTH.

The muscular strength of the human body is wonderful. A Turkish porter will trot at a rapid pace, and carry a weight of 600 pounds. Milo, a celebrated athlete of Cretons, in Italy, accustomed himself to carry the greatest burdens, and by degrees became a monster in strength. It is said he carried on his shoulder an ox, four years old, weighing upward of 1,000 pounds, and afterwards killed him with one blow of the fist. He was seven times crowned at the Pythian games, and six at the Olympic. He presented himself the seventh time, but no one had the courage to enter the list against him. He was one of the disciples of Pythagoras; and to his uncommon strength that preceptor and his pupils owed their lives. The pillar which supported the roof of the house suddenly gave way, but Milo supported the roof of the building, and gave the philosopher time to escape. In old age he attempted to pull up a tree by the roots and break it. He partially effected it, but his strength being gradually exhausted, the tree, where cleft re-united, and left his hand pinched in the body of it.—He was then alone, and being unable to disengage himself, died in that position. Haller mentions that he saw a man, whose finger, caught in a chain at the bottom of a mine, by keeping it forcibly bent, supported by that means the whole weight of his body, 150 pounds, until he was drawn up to the surface, a distance of 600 feet. Augustus II, King of Poland, could roll up a silver plate like a sheet of paper, and twist the strongest horse shoe asunder.—A lion is said to have left the impression of his teeth upon a piece of solid iron:—The most prodigious power of muscle is exhibited by the fish. The whale moves with a velocity, through a dense medium, water, that could carry him around the world in less than a fort-night. A sword fish has been known to strike his weapon through the thick plank of a ship; a specimen of a plank, with the sword of a fish in it may be seen at the British Museum.

☞ Lord M., with no very large portion of either wit or wisdom, had a very exalted opinion of his own powers. When once in a large company, and expatiating about himself, he made the following pointed remark:

"When I happen to say a foolish thing I always burst out laughing."

"I envy you your happiness, my lord, then," said Charles Townsend; "for you must certainly live the merriest life of any man in Europe."

☞ The greatest and noblest stand against oppression, has ever been the inkstand.

BROTHER DOANE.

In the early history of the still flourishing city of Brownsville, on the Rio Grand, in Texas, and about the time of the withdrawal of the United States troops from that country, at the close of the Mexican war, the inhabitants mostly consisted of that class of half renegades, half gamblers, usually found in one of our frontier towns, with a small sprinkling of honest, and sometimes Christian citizens. Among the latter was a very honest, upright merchant, known as Uncle George Doane.

Uncle George was a man of sterling worth and unshaken integrity, and, withal, a devout member of the Methodist Church, but unfortunately possessed of a most fiery temper, easily aroused, and when aroused—and in combination with his well-knit frame and

The Next Move.

For some days past, the telegraphic despatches from Washington have led us to believe that the evacuation of Fort Sumter has been, or will be, decided upon by the President. All the military men about Washington, and the Cabinet, with one or two exceptions, think the Fort must, of necessity, be given up, and it now remains with the President to say whether it shall be evacuated or re-inforced. Major Anderson informed the Government some six or eight days since, that he had only about fifteen days provision and coal on hand, and he must either be supplied or removed. To attempt to give him supplies or re-inforcements would, in his opinion, bring about a collision which would require a heavy force of men, more than the government could at this time command. In view of this it is thought that Fort Sumpter will be evacuated and that another move in the programme will be made. It is the attempt to collect the revenue off the Southern harbors. If this step must be taken the Government should obviously be preparing to back it up with sufficient show of force to make the move a successful one. This we find it is now prudently doing. At New York there is now collected, and almost ready for service, a larger naval force than was ever concentrated on any one squadron since the organization of the United States Navy. It exceeds the Paraguay expedition by seven in the number of vessels, and by over a thousand in the number of men. It consists of more ships than the channel fleet of England, although of only half as many men. The Powhattan has arrived, brought home in pursuance of the policy of establishing a Naval Coast Guard, which was resolved upon by the late Administration, and which will be adhered to by the present. The advices by this arrival from the Home Squadron are interesting. Three ships-of-war only will be left in the Gulf of Mexico until political affairs become more settled here. The Macedonian is the only newly commissioned ship to remain out.

On Thursday the Empire City, and Star of the West were up for Texas, ready for departure. The storeship supply was up for the Home Squadron, while the Mohawk, with a cargo consisting of stores, ammunition and coal, and an uncertain destination, was awaiting orders. A number of other steamers will shortly leave New York under orders from the Government. The steamships Philadelphia, Ariel and Coatzacoalcos, have all been chartered, and are now getting ready as fast as possible. A half dozen vessels of the Navy are still remaining there, ready for orders to go anywhere as soon as required. During Wednesday and Thursday, the Vixen and Harriet Lane were lying off the Battery, waiting orders. The Crusader, the Perry, the Corwin, and the Bibb, the two latter being smart little coasting surveyors now drafted for naval service, are likewise in a state of readiness. The splendid frigate Roanoke will be taken out of the dry dock in a week. At Governor's Island, the ordinance department is in a state of activity, though the company employed in loading the guns and military stores is not very large.

As the establishment of the naval coast guard is a most important movement, we make up from New York papers its present total available strength. Altogether there are fifteen vessels of light draught for harbor duties, tenders, &c., carrying sixty-six guns, and one thousand, two hundred and thirty men; six chartered steamers for transport duty, carrying six guns and six hundred men, and five heavy draught vessels and steamers, carrying one hundred and eighteen guns and one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five men.

APPOINTMENTS.—The President has mad the following appointments of Foreign Ministers and Post Masters:—

Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, Minister to Spain

Carl Shurz, of Iowa, Minister to Brazil,

Charles F. Adams, of Mass., Minister to England.

Wm. L. Dayton, of New Jersey, Minister to France.

George P. Marsh, of Vermont, Minister to Sardinia.

James Watson Webb, of New York, Minister to Turkey.

Wm. S. Thayer has been nominated for Consul General to Egypt, and Patrick J. Devine, as Consul at Cork.

Dr. Locke, of Indiana, has been appointed Chief of the Agricultural Bureau of the Patent Office.

George Bergner, of the Harrisburg Telegraph, and John J. Cochran, editor of the Lancaster Union, have been appointed Postmaster in their respective cities.

THE SURRENDER IN TEXAS.—The San Antonia (Texas) "Herald" says that the following is a list of the property given to the State by Gen. Twiggs:—

1,800 mules, valued at	$50 each	$90,000
500 wagons,	" 140 "	90,000
950 horses,	" 250 "	142,500
500 harness,	" 50 "	25,000
Tools, wagon materials, iron, nails, horse and mule shoes,		250,000
Corn (at this post),		7,000
Clothing,		150,000
Commissary stores,		75,000
Ordinance stores,		400,000
Total,		$1,229,500

Exclusive of public buildings, to which the Federal Government has a title.—Much of the property is estimated at the original cost, its value in Texas being much greater, and worth to the State at least a million and a half of dollars.

SECESSION NOT RECOGNIZED.—Mr. Faulkner, our minister at the Court of France, has been officially assured by M. Thouvenal that no delegate from South Carolina, or from any other seceding States, has ever been received either by the Emperor or by himself. This may be considered as indicative of the determination of France to offer no recognition whatever to the "Confederate States of America," and as emphatically stamping its disapprobation upon the secession movement.

THE OLD COPPER CENTS.—In November last the Directors of the Mint at Philadelphia made an arrangement with the Adams Express Company to convey to the Mint, free of charge, all old cents to be exchanged for new ones. On the 20th of February this arrangement was brought to a close. During that time (about three months) there were received and exchanged at the Mint, five million four hundred thousand cents—fifty-four thousand dollars.

GOING "SNACKS" ON THE MILEAGE. The mileage from Oregon is $15.000.—The Presidental electors of that State would not agree to send one of their number to bring the electoral vote, but all three came and divided the $15,000 between them. One draws the whole from the treasury and then shares it with his associates.

U. S. SENATOR.—Hon. David Wilmot was last week elected United States Senator, in the place of Hon. Simon Cameron, appointed Secretary of War. Mr. Cameron's term would have expired in 1863, and Mr. Wilmot is elected only for the unexpired portion of it—to March 4th, 1863.

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.—In case an extra session of Congress is called, special elections will have to be held in Maryland, Tennessee, North Carolina, Kentucky, Rhode Island and California. Virginia holds her regular election in the latter end of May, in season, probably, to do away with a special election.

A PREDICTION.—The National Intelligencer says: "We take the liberty of venturing a prediction, which we base on long observation of political events occurring in the successive changes that take place in the administration of the federal government. And the prediction we make is, that if the ordinary current of our political history is not, disturbed by some extraneous influences, rendering the Presidential term of Mr. Lincoln entirely exceptional in its complexion and results, it is pretty sure, in about the same degree, to disappoint the exaggerated expectations of too ardent friends, and the exaggerated apprehensions of its too suspicious opponents. For no administration, so far as we are aware, has ever yet accomplished all the good expected at its hands by the former, or all the evil foreshadowed by the latter, under apprehensions often inspired by other considerations than simple, disinterested patriotism.

AMERICAN LOCOMOTIVES IN FRANCE.—Locomotives, to be driven by American Anthracite coal are now constructing by the Paris and Orleans Railway Company, at their workshops at Ivry, under the direction of a Philadelphian, named Millholland. The coal can be laid down on the line for $6.75 per ton, and the experiment annoys the English coal dealers very much. It is said to be owing to the enterprise of a French nobleman, recently in this country, whose attention was drawn to the subject while traveling with Lord Lyons, the British Minister, over the Reading railway.

☞ A man went into a rum hole lately in Pittsfield, Mass., for a glass of cheap whiskey, and was given sulphuric acid in mistake. The proprietor, who thought he had killed his man, sure, waited in trepidation a summons before a coroner's jury, when his customer at last appeared for another glass of the same kind. "It was the best he ever drank; it kept him drunk for three days."

☞ Fact—How immensely would our conversation be abridged, if all mankind would only speak the truth.

☞ Husband:—"Mary, my love, this apple dumpling is not half done." Wife:—"Well, finish it then, my dear."

☞ Apples are selling from 15 to 20 cents per bushel, in Erie. Oh! for a peck, or a bushel, or a barrel or two at that price.

☞ The mode of churning in Fayal, one of the Azores, is to tie the cream up in a goat skin, and kick it about till the butter comes.

☞ The city of Messina, in Sicily, with a population of 100,000, contains several theatres and churches, but not a single newspaper.

☞ A Virginia paper speaks of the chaste oratory of Secretary Floyd. If he isn't chaste as an orator, he ought to be chased as a thief.

☞ A soldier being asked if he met with much hospitality while he was in Ireland, replied, "That he was in the hospital nearly all the time he was there."

☞ A daudy observed that he had put a plate of brass on his boots to keep him upright. "Well balanced by jing," said a Dutchman; "brass at both ends."

☞ At the election it Reading, Berks county, on Friday, the Democratic Mayor was elected by 644 majority. The whole Democratic city ticket was elected.

☞ A member of the Virginia Convention telegraphed to Norfolk—"Tell your people all is well; and that the Fourth of July will be celebrated under the stars and stripes."

☞ You may outlaw the friend of truth, but truth remains; you may humble the poet, the artist, and the Christian, but you cannot debase poetry, or art, or Christianity.

☞ A yankee bragging of having killed a panther whose tail was three feet long, Brown replied that the panther died seasonably as the "tail" was long enough not to be continued.

☞ "We must be unanimous," said Hancock, on the occasion of signing the Declaration of Independence, "there must be no pulling different ways." "Yes," answered Franklin, "we must all hang together, or most assuredly we shall all hang separately."

☞ The Ebensburg Democrat and Sentinel and Mountaineer are endeavoring to re-unite the Democracy of Cambria county. After the manner in which they have talked about each other, it seems to us a little like trying to mix oil and water together.

☞ Widely different—the views of political editors in reference to Lincoln's Inaugural. If it were not for fear of a hereafter, some people would misrepresent the Bible, and call it a silly production, because of its plainness on some points and obscurity on others.

☞ Retired—Col. Swank from the Johnstown Tribune in consequence of his appointment to the office of County Superintendent. We are sorry to lose such a valuable and gentlemanly member of the "corps editorial," but hope his new position may prove one of more pecuniary profit than that which he has left.

☞ Spasmodic—the military spirit of the Harrisburgers. Every time the citizen soldiery of the surrounding country give them a grand exhibition of the "pomp and circumstance of glorious war," we have rumors of several new companies being formed by the patriotic young men of that place, but in less than a month the thing is flat in the mud.

GAETA AFTER THE SIEGE.—The Genoa Gazette publishes a letter from Gaeta containing the following details respecting the state of the town when the Piedmontese troops took possession of it:—"I have just entered Gaeta, and it is almost impossible to imagine its deplorable condition. In the square one absolutely walks on iron. It is even difficult to get along the streets, so obstructed are they with the ruins of houses knocked down by shot and shells. Here and there I saw men wheeling barrows containing the mangled remains of bodies extricated from the ruins. One poor woman was got out still living from under the fallen walls of a house, where she had lain several days with a broken leg. A wounded soldier was also found dying in the street, where he had no doubt been abandoned in the midst of the confusion by the last bombardment. But the worst scene of all is the Transylvania battery, which was blown up by the explosion of the powder magazines. The walls thrown down, the very rocks riven, and the ground strewn with shells and grenades, present a sight which really makes one shudder. It is evident that if the siege had lasted another month Gaeta would have been utterly destroyed. The number of sick and wounded in the town was 1,700.

TAXATION AT CHARLESTON.—The City Councils of Charleston have passed to the point of ratification, a bill for taxing persons and property to a frightful amount—$1.30 on every hundred dollars of real and leased property—the same on all goods and merchandise—$2.50 on every $100 of interest on any obligation—the same on every hundred dollars of dividends on stocks—$3 a head on slaves—$60 on every four wheeled coach, for two horses $20 and $15 on other vehicles—$2.50 on every $100 of income and profits on the last year—the same amount on all commissions—$1.25 on every $100 of insurance premiums—50 cents on gas stock—75 cents on every $100 invested in shipping—$10 for every horse or mule—$2 on each dog—$2.50 on the receipt of all agencies—$1 poll tax—$5 for every slave brought in for sale—every free negro $10, within certain ages, or $5 or $6, if females. Peddlers are to give penal bonds in $1.000 to make true returns, &c. The whole shows a sad condition of things, and no community could stand the load, except they were slaves.

MORTAR PRACTICE.—One of the ridiculous mishaps which will sometimes befall soldiers, befell a whole file of the snugly attired military of New Orleans on the day of the Twiggs reception. They were drawn up along the street in front of a building in course of construction, and close in their rear was a long mortar bed, two feet deep, with that plastic composition, ready for the workmen. The space between the files for the passage of the carriages being rather narrow, the officer ordered his men to take a step back. They did so, but about twenty feet of "sogers" instantaneously disappeared from sight backwards, and the front file, in close order, preventing the rear rank from recovering themselves when their heels stumbled against the mortar bed. They were submerged, and every soldier of them had his pretty uniform spoiled. They took cabs and absquatulated instanter.

☞ A queer dance for life happened to Espinosa, the ballet dancer of Ravel's troupe, while in the Rocky Mountains recently. He was captured while away from his companions, by a tribe of Indians, who, dancing around him, was preparing to put him to torture. Espinosa, equal to the emergency, thought he could dance himself into liberty, and dance he did, but towards a horse near by, upon which he finally jumped and escaped; the Indians supposed that the last act was part of the performance, till Espinosa was out of their reach.

The preparations of Blood Food are among the most important discoveries of the age. They are not medicines, but food for the blood: already prepared for absorption, pleasant to the taste, and natural in action; and what one gains, he retains. The Blood Food is a scientific discovery, differing from all patent medicines; and for consumption, throat diseases, liver complaints, dyspepsia, and other diseases incident to the human frame, is unequalled for its healing and strengthening qualities.—Columbia, Ohio, Gazette. DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

Infallible in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstructions, from whatever cause, and always successful as a preventative

There is not a lady living but what at some period of her life needs just such a medicine as "Duponco's Golden Pills." One of the first ladies of Chester told the Agent there that she had received so much benefit from the use of them, she would be willing to pay $5 a box, rather than be without them, if she could get them no less. The ingredients composing these pills are made known to every Agent. They will tell you they are perfectly harmless and yet will do all claimed for them. Full and explicit directions accompany each box. Price $1.00 per box.—Sold by G. W. KESSLER, Druggist, sole Agent for Altoona, Pa.

Ladies by sending him $1.00 to the Altoona Post Office, can have the pills sent to any part of the country (confidentially) by mail, "free of postage." Sold also by JOHN READ, Huntingdon, and by one Druggist in every village town and city in the State.

S. D. HOWE,
Sole Proprietor, New York.

N. B.—The above Pills have been counterfeited, and are offered to Ladies at prices ranging from 25 cents to 75 cts. (dear at that.) Look out for them. The genuine, hereafter, will bear the signature of S. D. Howe, sole proprietor. Price—$1. Purchase of the above gentlemen, and you will find the genuine article, and one you may rely upon.

WOLFE'S Pure Cognac Brandy.
WOLFE'S Pure Maderia, Sherry and Port Wine.
WOLFE'S Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature of the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there's one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

...UDDEN DEATH.—On Sunday evening last, ...citizens were startled by the report that ...s. McCrea, wife of Charles R. McCrea, of ...s place, had died suddenly while in atten...nce at the Baptist Church. On inquiry we ...certained the following facts in the case:— ...s. M. attended church on the evening named, ...l while there, was seized with a violent fit of ...ughing. Not wishing to annoy the congrega..., she got up and passed out of the church ...l into the house of Mrs. Cauffman, close by. ...entering Mrs. C's she complained of feeling ...ell and lay down on a settee, or lounge, ...re, in a few minutes, she breathed her last. ...ician aid was immediately summoned, but it ...e of no avail, the vital spark had forever fled. ...e cause of her death has been variously at...uted to heart disease, to which she was sub..., and to the breaking of an ulcerous affec... upon her lungs, occasioned by the violent ...f coughing. Mrs. McCrea had gone to ...rch in her usual good health, and had no in...tion whatever that her sands of life were so ...rly run out. She was a woman of robust ...healthy appearance, and, to human obser...ion, bid more fairly to live out her three ...e surrounded. She leaves a husband and fami... of four boys to mourn their loss. In this, the ...r of their sudden affliction, they have the ...mpathies of all who enjoy their acquaintance. ...e remains of Mrs. M. were taken to Holli...sburg yesterday, and interred in the Pres...ian burying ground, at that place. An ex... train, consisting of 11 passenger cars and ...e baggage car, was fitted up for the accommo...tion of those who wished to attend her fener...

RAILROAD WATCHMAN KILLED.—Foul Play Suspected.—On the evening of the 20th inst., ...hn Fitzgar, a watchman on the Pennsylvania ...ilroad, was killed by being run over by a ...eight train at Whippoorwill straight line, five ...les West of Gallitzin, Cambria county, under ...rcumstances giving rise to suspicion that he ...s foully dealt with. It was Fitzgar's duty to ...atch and keep the track clear, and it is said ...s in the performance of this duty a few min...es before he met his death, a woman having ...served him walking along the road with a ...hted lamp in his hand.

A small wound, supposed to have been inflic...d with a sharp instrument, and not by any...ing about the train, was observed in the cen...r of his forehead, while his head rested on one ...il, his feet on the other, and his lamp, with ...e light extinguished, found on the end of a ...on the other track—these facts creating the ...nion that the man was first killed and then ...ced between the rails to be run over, in or...r to cover up the deed.

A coroner's inquest was to have been held on ...onday morning. Deceased resided at Lock...rt, and leaves a wife and four children.—...mbria Tribune.

COL. THOMAS A. SCOTT.—The Harrisburg cor...spondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin thus ...mpliments Col. Thomas A. Scott, in noticing ...e passage through the Senate of the Bill for ...e repeal of the Tonnage Tax:—

"In this connection it is but just to observe ...at much of the success of the passage of the ...nnage bill, is owing to the quickness and ...rmness of decision, the profound acquaintance ...ith the history and operations of the Central ...ailroad which characterize the young Vice ...resident of that road. I allude to Thomas A. ...cott. Every man who has come in contact ...ith him during the pendency of the terrible ...truggle through which this bill has gone, has ...een strongly impressed with his clear percep...ve faculties, his cool judgement, and great en...rgy of character. I have never yet, either in ...ilitary or civil life, seen a man capable of de...iding with a like degree of accuracy, so many ...uestions in so short a time. This I take to be ...he highest quality of an executive officer. So ...uch, in justice, to the real hero of this civil ...chievement."

HIGH RAILROAD BRIDGES.—From the report of the Auditor General of Pennsylvania, we ...ean the following interesting statistics: The ...ighest railrond bridge in the State is upon the ...atawissa railroad, and is 128 feet high; the ...lgdin bridge, on the West Chester and Phila...elphia Railroad, is 101 feet high; the highest ...ridge on the Pennsylvania Railroad, is at ...ottesville, and is 72 feet high; the high bridge ...n the Huntingdon and Broad Top Road, at ...onersville, is 97 feet high; and the celebrated ...issahickon Bridge on the Philadelphia and ...orristown Railroad is but 68 feet high.

CHILD SCALDED.—Yesterday (Wednesday) ...orning a little child of Alex. Mock, of East ...ltoona, aged about 2 years, was severely scald...d about the breast and face by the upsetting of ...tub full of hot water upon it. It appears that ...s mother had put the hot water in the tub and ...ent out into the yard to get some cool water ...o put with it, and during her absence, the ...hild caught hold of the tub and pulled it over. ...t is thought that its life can be saved.

P. S. Child died about six o'clock this (Thurs...y) morning.

WITNESS IN COURT.—Of all unfortunate people in this world, none are more entitled to sympathy and commiseration than those whom circumstances oblige to appear upon the witness stand in Court. We will here draw a picture, of the pleasure of being a witness. You are called to the stand and place your hand upon a copy of the Scriptures in sheepskin binding.—You are then arraigned before two legal gentlemen, one of whom smiles at you blandly because you are on his side, the other eyeing you savagely for the opposite reason. The gentleman who smiles proceeds to pump you of all you know, and having squeezed all he wants out of you, relentlessly hands you over to the other, who proceeds to show you that you are entirely mistaken in all your suppositions; that you never saw anything you have sworn to; that you never saw the defendant in your life; in short, that you have committed direct perjury. He wants to know if you have ever been in State prison, and takes your denial with the air of a man who thinks you ought to have been there. Asks you all the questions over again in different ways, and tells you with an awe-inspiring severity to be careful what you say. He wants to know if he understood you to say so and so, and wants to know whether you meant something else. Having bullied and scared you out of your wits, and convicted you in the eyes of the jury of prevarication, he lets you go. By and by, everybody you have fallen out with is put on the stand, to swear that you are the biggest scoundrel they ever knew, and not to be believed under oath. Then the opposing counsel, in summing up, paints your moral photograph to the jury, as a character fit to be handed down to all time as the type of infamy; as a man who had conspired against innocence and virtue, and stood convicted of the attempt.—The Judge, in his charge, tells the jury if they believe your testimony, &c., &c., indicating that there is even a judicial doubt of your veracity, and you go home to your wife and family, neighbors and acquaintances, a suspected man, all because of your accidental presence on an unfortunate occasion. Who would be a witness?

MODERN CHOIR SINGING.—A correspondent of a religious paper, who urges the necessity of a reform in church music, says that our ameteur choir singers are too fond of "executing" difficult pieces, and confounding common people with reverberating resonnances. The Rector of St. Bardolph's takes off this style most laughably, in describing the singing of the following stanzas:—

"True love is like that precious oil,
Which poured on Aaron's head,
Ran down his beard, and o'er his robes
It's costly moisture shed."

In the prodigious effort of this performance, the ear-splitting combination of the several voices hardly bore a resemblance to that oily current poured on Aaron's head, and which

"Ran down his beard, and o'er his head,
Ran down his beard—
——————his robes
And o'er his robes—
Ran down his beard—ran down his
——————o'er his robes—
His robes, his robes, ran down his beard—
Ran down his—
——————o'er his robes,
Ran down his beard—
——————h-i-s b-e-a-r-d—
It's costly moist—
Ran down his beard—
—ure—beard—his—beard—his—shed—
Ran down his beard—his—down
His robes—it's costly moist—his beard
—ure shed—his—beard—his robes—ure shed
It's c-o-s-t-l-i-e moisture——shed!"

The late Bishop Seabury, being asked his opinion of this performance, replied that he had paid no attention to the music, but that his sympathies were so much excited for poor Aaron that he was afraid he would not have a hair left.

EYE AND EAR.—The celebrated and successful Occulist and Aurist, Dr. Jones, from Jones' Eye and Ear Infirmary, 147, fourth Avenue, N. Y., has been prevailed upon to make a professional visit to the principal places in this State in order to bring his skill within the reach of thousands who could not otherwise avail themselves of it. Dr. J. is the most scientific Oculist in America; he has had the benefit of a thorough medical education, having attended the best Colleges and Institutes in this country and Europe; he treats for all the diseases and deformities that the Eye and Ear are subject to. He straightens cross eyes, removes Cataracts, specks, and tumors from the Eye, cures deafness, noise in the head, and discharges from the Ear, no matter from what cause. Dr. J. performs all kinds of Surgical operations successfully, and has the advantage of all the late improvements in this department of science, he is prepared to treat and cure any disease that is curable. Dr. J. will be at the Logan House, Altoona, on Thursday, the 21st inst., and will remain until the 28th. Those afflicted should call on him.

HAVE YOU BOOKS TO BIND?—Many of our citizens we know take papers and magazines which are valuable, and would make handsome volumes if bound; and we believe that many would have such magazines and papers bound up if they could get it done without much expense or trouble. We have to say that F. L. Hutter, book-binder, at Harrisburg, by the way one of the best binders in the country, has appointed us his Agents in this place. We will receive newspapers, magazines and books and forward them to him, and when finished they will be returned to us for delivery to their owners. This arrangement will save our citizens all trouble in the matter save the handing over of their documents to us. We are prepared to give information as to the different prices and styles of binding, &c. Bring along your documents.

INFORMATION.—If you want to stop taking a paper, don't write "refused" on the margin and send it back, but "step up to the Captain's office and settle like a man," and tell the publisher to strike your name from the list. You have a right to stop at any time, but you should first pay what you owe. That's the manly and the honest way to do the thing.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Samuel Miller, a farmer in Barree township, attended the Spring Election in Saulsburg, on Friday last, in apparent good health and while in conversation with some gentlemen, fell to the floor, dead.—Mr Miller was about 28 years of age, a younger brother of Graffus and John S. of this place.—Hunt. Globe.

INFANTICIDE.—The Cambria Tribune, of last week, details the particulars of an infanticide which came to light in White township, in that county, a couple of weeks since. The perpetrator of the crime is a girl named Ann Hartzell, aged about 16 years. On the evening of the 4th inst., while attending church in the neighborhood, she complained of feeling unwell, and asked a young man to accompany her home. He complied with her request. On entering the house where she was living, she complained to the lady of the house that she had a severe cramp in her stomach and immediately retired. After all who were in the house had retired she got up and went out, remaining out some three-quarters of an hour, when she returned and went to bed again. As the man of the house, accompanied by two young men, were returning from church, their attention was attracted by the cry of an infant, and after a brief search, they found a baby sticking under the pig-pin.—The child was taken into the house and properly cared for. There were various marks of violence discovered upon its person, and it was apparently fatally injured. It survived but about nine hours. The Coroner's inquest revealed the fact that the back part of its head was crushed, its back broken, and marks found upon its neck as if an attempt had been made to choke it to death. The girl admitted the maternity of the child but denied having done it any violence.

☞ The Poco Metalic Paint advertised in our columns to-day, charms the attention of builders and painters, and in fact everybody owning property that can be beautified and preserved by painting. The cheapness, durability and superiority claimed for this paint makes an investigation of its merits a matter of great importance, and we trust that some of our enterprising business men will make the examination and if so meritorious an article, benefit our community by its immediate introduction. Mr. Houpt desires an agent in every town.

☞ As the time for gardening will soon be on hand, it would be well for our horticultural friends to look around for good and reliable seeds. We have noticed a large assortment of Landreth's Philadelphia Garden Seeds at the Drug Store of A. Roush, lately brought from the city, and we would recommend to all, who are in need of any, to buy of him in preference to buying worthless trash which is huckstered through the country.

☞ Merchants visiting Philadelphia, will find the largest Carpet Warehouse, and the largest and best stock of goods in the Carpet line, at No. 509. Chestnut st. Messrs. McCallum & Co., Proprietors, possessing great facilities for manufacturing and importing extensively, feel assured that they can offer inducements to purchasers. See their card in another column, and make a note of it.

☞ The lecture of Miss Louise E Vickroy, on the "Poetry and Poets of America," delivered in Lowthers' Hall, on Thursday evening last, was well attended. Not having been present we can not speak of its merits.

PHYSIC SHOULD BE CHEAP.—We notice that three young men of this county have graduated at different medical colleges during the past winter, and are now prepared to hang out their shingles.

MARRIED:

On the 3d inst., in Logan's Valley, by Rev. S. Domer, Mr. JOHN L. GRENZ to Miss SOPHIA SCHWENN, both lately from Hesse Darmstadt, Germany.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,
The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings.—All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. LABOR-SAVING WASHING MACHINE.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING purchased the right for Blair county, of

Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine,

are now manufacturing them at Altoona, and intend to supply them to those persons throughout the county who desire a LABOR-SAVING MACHINE.

This machine is got up on an entirely new principle, and is considered, by those who have seen it in use, the best that has ever been brought before the public.

Among the many advantages of this machine over all others may be mentioned the following:

1st. Its simplicity of construction, making it almost impossible to get out of order.

2d. Its speed, which astonishes alike the operator and the looker on.

3rd. The facility with which it adapts itself to the bulk or quantity of clothes desired to be washed.

4th. It washes equally well the finest and lightest fabric or the coarsest and heaviest, such as bed-quilts, comforts, blankets, &c.

McMINN & DERN,
Altoona, Blair County, Pa.

We the undersigned, hereby certify that we are now using Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine and are fully satisfied that it is a very excellent article of the kind; combining as it does great speed with little labor, and performing its work in the most satisfactory manner. We therefore cheerfully recommend it to all who desire a real labor-saving washing machine.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters immuerable testifying to the above fact from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being.

ONLY 25 CENTS

per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper: also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

Wholesale Depot, 56 Dey St., and sold by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world.

Liberal discount to purchasers by the quantity.

I also desire to present to the American Public my

New and Improved Instantaneous

LIQUID HAIR DYE

which after years of scientific experimenting I have brought to perfection. It dyes Black or Brown instantly without injury to the Hair or Skin, warranted the best article of the kind in existence.

Price, Only 50 Cents.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINE HAVES NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Headache, Heartburn, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a gentle process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DISEASES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the animalcule to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, AND INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of PILES of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease.—In these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description.—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Salt River Passengers, Ho!

AS THE SUBSCRIBER WILL BE under the necessity of leaving early in November for the head waters of Salt River, in the ship UNION, which will positively sail about that time; and knowing that many of my friends will be going and will want an outfit I take this opportunity of informing them as well as all my old friends and customers, that I have just returned from the East, where I purchased a large stock of Goods, which I am now opening at my store in North Ward, to which I invite inspection. It is the

LARGEST AND HANDSOMEST

as well as the CHEAPEST lot of Goods brought to the town this fall. The reason why I say the cheapest is obvious to every reflecting mind, because in the season advances the merchants in the east say, prices dwelling therefore I have an advantage of from 20 to 25 per cent over those who purchased early in the season, and I can and will sell cheaper than any other house in the place. Purchasers will thus at once see the propriety of at least examining my stock before buying elsewhere. My stock consists of all the newest styles of

There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER,

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex: There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
